

Lichen #1

- DESIGNED, PAINTED, AND QUILTED BY: Caryl Bryer Fallert
- DATE: 1989
- SIZE: 16" x 17" / 40cm x 43cm
- COLORS: green, red, blue
- FABRICS: 100% cotton fabric / wool batting
- TECHNIQUES: Hand dyed, machine pieced, appliqued, embroidered, & quilted
- IDENTIFYING MARKS: Signature & label
- PHOTO: Caryl Bryer Fallert
- OWNER: Private collection, Tokyo, Japan

Design Concept & Process:

This piece began as a composition of organic shapes arranged on a painted background fabric. The organic shapes were cut from fabric dyed in a gradation of shades from red to green. These shapes were then stitched over with various colors of thread. The finished composition reminded me of a microscopic photograph of a primitive plant.

Exhibitions:

- The Artist Works Gallery, 1989, Naperville, IL
- Illinois Artisans Shop, State of Illinois Building, 1990, Chicago, IL
- Aesthetics '92, Juried National Multimedia Art Exhibition, 1992, McPherson, KS
- Polychrome – Fiber Fifteen Group show, 1992, David Adler Cultural Center, Libertyville, IL
- A celebration of Creativity, Juried Fiber and Textile Exhibition, 1992, Crossman Gallery, Whitewater, WI (Certificate of Merit)

Publications:

- None

Lichen #1 • 16" x 17" • Copyright 1989 Caryl Bryer Fallert • www/bryerpatch.com